Will Stick Together.

The St. Matthews correspondent of the News and Courier, says, "The Orangeburg-Calhoun Medical Society met here to-day at 12 o'clock. The meeting was largely attended and much interest manifested. Dr. W. P. Timmerman, of Batesburg district, was on hand, and made a short but interesting talk. Dr. A. W. Browning, of Elloree, read a splendid paper on "Infantile Scourvy." Other subjects were ventilated by most of the members present.

"The most animated discussion of the meeting was over the advisability of dissolving the co-society of the two counties. This matter was precipitated in view of the marked indifference of the Orangeburg end of the line, where most of the meetings are held.

"After a full debate, pro and con, it was decided to continue as heretofore.

"In justice to Orangeburg it may be noted that a good delegation of her medicals was present and strongly opposed a division.

"The St. Matthews physicians tendered the visiting brethren a fine collation at Cain's Hotel when the meeting adjourned.

"Dr. M. J. D. Dantzier, of Elloree, acted as chairman at the request of Dr. W. L. Parr, who has been president of the Association since its organization, many years ago. The venerable president is 82 years of age, and is one of the most punctual attendants of the Association. Dr. Dantzier, who has passed the allotted three-score and ten, is equally enthusiastic and punctual."

Col. Shuler's Prolific.

The following letter has been received and explains itself:
Office of Col. D. Weston Shuler, Prop. Washington Farm No. 26, Banner County of Banner State of U. S. A. June 26th.

To the Editor of The Times and Democrat: Enclosed to you a cotton bloom from the above registered cotton farm, which has 75 acres. Of that variety Shuler's Prolific Ever Growing and Bearing Short Cotton, and imported by the proprietor of that humble registered short cotton farm. His seed is always for sale for only a pitiful sum of $1.00 per bushel; thirty pounds to bushel. Poor plow boys who wish to plant he will give them seed to start.

Col. D. Weston Shuler.

JUDGE DANTZLER BURIED.

Orangeburg Lays Distinguished Citizen to Rest.

Charles Glover Dantzier, citizen, churchman, statesman, judge, lawyer, was interred Tuesday afternoon in the family lot at Sunnyside cemetery with Masonic honors.

The funeral services were held at St. Paul Methodist church, and were conducted by Rev. D. D. Dantzier, a kinsman of Judge Dantzier, assisted by Rev. C. B. Smith, a life long friend. The services which were largely attended, were as simple as possible. The Masonic pall bearers were: Samuel Dibble, Thomas M. Rayson, J. H. Loryea, W. W. Wannamaker, W. B. Thompson, I. W. Bowman, John Cart, W. L. Glover, Dr. Wm. R. Lowman, A. L. Duke, and M. K. Jeffords.

After the conclusion of the religious rites, the body was taken in charge by Shilboleth Lodge, No. 28, A. F. M., and consigned to its last resting place with the beautiful ritualistic ceremonies of the Masonic Order. A large number of Masons of the Blue Lodge, Royal Arch, Knight Templar and Shriner degrees were present from Orangeburg, Columbia, Spartanburg, St. Matthews and other points of the State.

Present and representing Columbia Lodge, A. F. M., Columbia Chapter, No. 5, R. A. M.; Columbia Commandery No. 2, K. T., and Omar Temple of Mystic Shriners, were C. B. Simmons, T. S. Bryan, D. A. Childs, B. P. McMaster, E. W. Parker, H. H. McGill, E. M. Thompson, and W. A. Fitten, all of Columbia; J. J. Darby, representing Spartanburg Commandery, and J. H. Loryea, and others, representing Izlar Lodge, A. F. M., St. Matthews.

In the large audience at the church were represented all classes and conditions of our people, attesting the universal esteem in which Judge Dantzier was held, and every face was an index to the sorrow that weighed upon every heart.

The floral tributes from home and abroad were numerous and beautiful, and seemed within themselves to express the love of those who gave them.

Telegrams of condolence have been received in large numbers from friends and admirers of the dead jurist. Judge Wilson, of the Circuit Bench, in a telegram received by the family, pays a beautiful and high tribute to the deceased as a man of exalted character and unswerving integrity.

As a mark of respect for their dead friend all the public offices and every law office in the city were closed at 12 o'clock, and at 5 o'clock, the hour of the funeral, all the business houses were closed for the balance of the day.

Judge Dantzier Eulogized.

Before adjourning Court sine die, Monday afternoon, at Laurens, as a mark of respect to the memory of Judge C. G. Dantzier, suitable memorial resolutions, offered by Judge Featherstone, for the Laurens Bar, were adopted and ordered spread on the records, by Judge Robert Aldrich, presiding, after paying a touching tribute to his friend and fellow jurist. In addition to the remarks of Mr. Featherstone and the Court, eulogistic addresses were made by Solicitor Cooper, F. P. McGowan, H. Y. Simpson, John W. Ferguson, John M. Cannon, Clerk of Court Bolt and R. E. Bath.

Judge Dantzier Mourned.

The Court of Common Pleas now in session at Union was adjourned Tuesday on motion of members of the local Bar, when it became known that Judge Dantzier was dead. A page in the minute book of the Court was ordered dedicated to his memory and a telegram of sympathy, signed by Special Judge Gruber, on behalf of the Court and Bar, was forwarded to Judge Dantzier's family.

Change in Schedule.

Beginning next Monday the schedule now in effect for the R. F. D. carriers leaving Orangeburg will be changed. Now the carriers leave each day at about 11 o'clock, after both the morning mails have arrived. But hereafter according to orders received by Postmaster Webster, the carriers will all leave at 8:30 and return at 3:15 p. m., 4 p. m., 3:15 p. m., 2 p. m., and 3:15 p. m., in the order named. This seems to be a change contrary to the convenience of the patrons of the various routes for it will necessitate mails arriving on the two morning trains to lay over in the post office a day before going out.

Hail at St. Matthews.

So many hail storms were never known in this section as this spring and summer, so far. Much damage was done in a small territory of the "Blue" vicinity late Monday afternoon. Mr. D. Hampton Ott, especially, a prosperous farmer of that community, was hard hit and his crop of corn and cotton badly damaged.

A Cotton Boll.

The first cotton boll we have seen or heard of was brought into our office yesterday by Mr. J. L. Phillips. The boll was taken from a 50 acre field of Mr. Phillips, of which Mr. Joe A. Bonnett is overseer. Mr. Phillips had two blooms as well as a bud.

Gets $10,000 Increase.

An increase of $10,000 has been added to the appropriation of $60,000 made several years for a public building and site at Orangeburg. This will be good news to the citizens of this city, and we suppose work will be commenced shortly on the building.

Struck by Lightning.

During a thunder storm on Tuesday a bolt of lightning struck the new and pretty residence of A. W. Folman, Esq., demolishing one chimney and blew out the grates, besides doing other damage.

DID BRANCHVILLE INJUSTICE.

Correspondent Takes Exception to Article Published.

Editor Times and Democrat:

In your issue of Saturday there appeared an article from St. George that did Branchville a great injustice. In that article, in reference to O. P. Sasser, the young man who is charged with stealing a watch from the Southern Express Company, it is stated that Sasser had been released on Bond and that "the loyalty of practically the entire business element of Branchville" was with him.

He further says that "the fact that the bond was signed by several well known business men is expressive of the confidence which he enjoys about Branchville." When he should have said that the bond was signed by two of his friends who are business men of Branchville. While the majority of the people sympathize with the unfortunate young man, they do not approve of and do not wish to show to the State that they lend any assistance to such a crime. The people of Branchville have no objection to the St. George correspondent writing what he pleases about his town and her people, but they do not like for him to write articles purporting to slander Branchville when he had evidently never gotten the facts.

To further prove that the Saint George man was wrong, and to set ourselves straight with the world, the following named Gentlemen, together with many others in Branchville, whose names do not appear, will gladly testify to the facts stated above: J. B. Williams, Mayor, W. P. Appleby, C. C. Patterson, P. P. Be-thea, J. F. Bryd, S. J. McCracken, H. D. Steedly, Edgar H. Rawl, G. M. Noble, Dr. J. D. S. Fairley, F. A. Bruce, R. F. Risher, L. W. Westbury, J. M. Byrd, H. Berry, A. H. Bruce, J. N. Byrd, A. S. Dukes, Magistrate, O. F. Ott, W. C. Steedly, W. W. Connelly, and John J. Jones.

CASHIER ELECTED.

Directors of Bank of Branchville Fill Vacancy.

Branchville, June 21st—Special: The directors of the Bank of Branchville called a meeting yesterday afternoon for the purpose of electing a man to fill the place of Cashier J. M. Tucker, deceased. There were considerable interest in this meeting because of the fact that the officials of the bank wanted to get a man that had ability to carry on the extensive business that is done by the bank and at the same time they wanted someone that would please the large number of the patrons of the bank. It was decided after discussion to create a new office in the Bank that of Active Vice-President, and after so doing Mr. L. H. Fairley, was elected to fill the place. Mr. Fairley is of good business ability and of high character and a man who will fill the position to which he has been elected in a way that will be acceptable to the people of Branchville. Mr. Fairley, assisted by the President, Maj. J. R. Hamilton, will have charge of the entire loan department of the bank. Mr. J. W. Black, who has held the position of Assistant Cashier for several years was made Cashier, and Mr. T. H. Patrick, the book-keeper, was promoted to Assistant Cashier.

PARTITION OF LEXINGTON.

Scheme After Scheme to Cut Loose From Mother County.

A Lexington dispatch to The State says there seems to be at present three separate attempts to cut the county of Lexington. Two of these efforts are being made to annex to other counties, the other to form a new county out of portions of Orangeburg and Lexington with Swansea as the county seat. So far, however, any one of these propositions has taken on anything like a successful termination.

Petitions have already been filed with Governor Ansel requesting that he order an election on the proposition of annexing a portion of the York and a portion of Congaree Township to Richland County, making a total of about forty square miles. The latest news on the subject comes from Prosperity, where several citizens representing the upper part of the Dutch Fork, were seeking light on the matter of annexing to Newberry.

James M. Tucker Buried.

Branchville, June 20.—Special: In the presence of one of the largest assemblages of people ever seen upon a similar occasion in Branchville the remains of the late Mr. J. M. Tucker, cashier of the Bank of Branchville, president of the Branchville Hardware Company and the Branchville Tie and Timber Company, were laid to rest with Masonic honors here today beneath a mound of flowers, which though profuse and costly, were but a slight token of the great esteem in which he was held, both here at home and throughout the entire State. He was a Mason, a Knight of Pythias, and was also connected with the Woodmen of the World. A wife and one son survive him.

Ice Cream Festival.

There will be an ice cream festival held at Hickory Grove on Saturday evening, July 2nd, beginning at 3 o'clock p. m. for the benefit of the church. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Three hundred thousand tourists off for Europe this season. One reason is that Europe preserves all its beautiful things, while we consider brick walls and paved streets all that is necessary.

WOMEN'S BEAUTY.

Imperfect Digestion Causes Bad Complexion and Dull Eyes.

The color in your cheeks won't fade, the brightness in your eye won't vanish, if you keep your stomach in good condition.

This was the advice of a prominent physician to a woman's club in Boston and it is good advice.

Belching of gas, heaviness, sour taste in mouth, dizziness, biliousness and nausea occur simply because the stomach is not properly digesting the food.

The blood needs nourishment to carry vigor, vim and vitality to every part of the body and when food ferments in the stomach enough nourishment is not supplied.

Miona stomach tablets give instant relief to upset stomachs, but they do more; they put strength into the stomach and build it up so that it can easily digest a hearty meal without giving its owner hours of misery.

Miona is sold by druggists everywhere and by J. G. Wannamaker Mfg. Co., at 50 cents a large box. It is guaranteed to cure indigestion or any stomach distress or money back.

In the fight Page was cut in the face and side. He shot Barham soon after the fight.

Be Careful of What You Say.

In speaking of a persons faults, Pray don't forget you own; Remember those with houses of glass Should seldom throw a stone. If we have nothing else to do But talk of those who sin, 'Tis better we commence at home, And from that point begin.

We have no right to judge a man, Until he is fairly tried; Should we not like his company, We know this world is wide.

Some have their faults, who has not? The old as well as young; Perhaps we may, for ought we know, Have fifty to their one.

I'll tell you of a better plan, And find its works full well, To try my own defects to cure Before of others tell.

And though I sometimes hope to be No worse than some I know, My own shortcomings bid me let The faults of others go.

Then let us all when we commence To slander friend or foe, Think of the harm one word may do. To those who little know.

Remember curses, sometimes like Our chickens, roost at home; Don't speak of others' faults until We have none of our own.
